Central's 'Big Band Boogie Ball' brings the swing – just in time for Valentine's Day – on Feb. 12

Dancers of all ages and skill levels are invited to cut a rug at the 21st annual Big Band Boogie Ball, a night of swing music and ballroom dancing from 7:30-11 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 12, at the UNC University Center Ballroom.

The Boogie Ball is sponsored by the Greeley Central High School music department and the Big Band Boogie Ball Committee. Featured groups will include Greeley Central's Jazz Ensemble I and II, the Heath Middle School Jazz Band, the Chappelow K-8 School Jazz Band, and the Brentwood Middle School Jazz Band. A waltz set will be presented by Greeley Central's Waltz Orchestra, and the evening will conclude with a guest appearance of the swing band Kream of the Krop.

Everyone who purchases a ticket to the Boogie Ball will also be eligible for free dance lessons, which will take place one hour before the start of the dance.

The Boogie Ball also includes a silent auction of a variety of goods and services donated by local merchants and Greeley Central families. The auction will be in the ballroom lobby from 7-9:30 p.m.

Proceeds from the Big Band Boogie Ball help the Greeley Central music department provide a quality music education to students, including music trips, guest artists, music lessons and scholarships.

Ticket prices are $15 for adults, $10 for students and senior adults 55 and older, and may be purchased at the door, or in advance from Greeley Central High School, 348-5085, or the Music Depot, 352-3380.
