Our Mission:

Madison Eagles are committed to excellence by demonstrating PRIDE in and around our school community.

Our Core Beliefs:

Perseverance: We believe in ourselves, our students, and what can be achieved in the future as we work hard together. We commit to demonstrating excellence in everything we do.

Relationships: We are professionals who treat each other with kindness and respect. We recognize successes and cultivate continuous positive energy in our relationships.

Identified Goals: We focus on ensuring that students meet or exceed identified goals with the collaboration of parents and students.

Diversity: We embrace the individual uniqueness of our school community as this diversity enriches the educational experience for all.

Engagement: We create and facilitate an engaging academic environment where students are actively learning at high levels.

Programs:

- No Place for Hate
- Boy's Town Social Skills
- Summit Extended Day Program
- Intramural Sports
- Choir
- Community Garden
- Recycling Program
- Family Literacy Nights
- Family Movie Nights
- Reading, Math and Science Carnivals

“The teachers invest their soul and heart into each child, which in turn makes him excited to go to school and learn. What a fabulous environment to have my son in.”

E. Knight-Braun, parent of a Madison student
