Summer meal program helps close hunger gap

School District 6 will sponsor a federal Summer Food Service Program beginning May 29, providing free meals to children ages 1–18 in Greeley and Evans. Adults may join their children and purchase a breakfast for $1.80 and a lunch for $3.10.

Just as learning does not end when school lets out, neither does a child's need for good nutrition. The national Summer Food Service Program provides free, nutritious meals to help children in low-income areas get the nutrition they need to learn, play and grow throughout the summer months when they are out of school.

In Greeley and Evans, meals will be served at the following schools during the dates and times listed. The meals are available to all children in the community; children do not need to be enrolled at these schools to participate.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture administers and funds the Summer Food Service Program.

For more information, contact Roger Fiedler in the Weld County School District 6 Office of Communications & Community Relations, 970-348-6000.

Locally, the program is run by approved sponsors, including school districts, local government agencies, camps, or private nonprofit organizations. Sponsors provide free meals to a group of children at a central site, such as a school or a community center. District 6 will receive payments from USDA for the meals served.
