Projects: 10%

Final Exam: 10%

Exams:

There will be an exam at the end of each unit

Quizzes:

Quizzes will be given at various points throughout the units that we cover

Homework:

There will be assignments given for homework, students are expected to complete them and turn them in when they are due. Copying the homework of another student will result in a zero, the use of a translator will also result in a zero. Homework assignments can include grammar worksheets, flip grid activities, projects, smaller activities, etc.

In class work:

Assignments that are given to be completed in class will be due at the end of class. No cheating and no use of translators is allowed. Class work will be individual or with partners or small groups.

Participation:

- All students are expected to participate in class. This includes taking notes, participating in activities, actively listening, following directions, completing assignments and being respectful.
- Some assignments will be counted as a participation grade. Assignments not done or activities not participated in will result in a loss of participation points.

Projects:

There will be a few projects over the course of the semester that will relate to the content of the unit. Projects will be spoken or written.

Phones:

The use of phones will not be permitted in class. Students will receive a warning, if the phone is not put away, it will be placed on the teachers desk.

Extra Credit:

Students can earn extra credit when playing games or on bonus questions on tests.

Late work:

All late work for a unit will be accepted up until the unit test.

Absences:

Students are expected to make up notes and work missed for being absent. Missed assignments will either be printed or online. For excused absences, participation activities will be excused.

Leaving class (bathroom):

Each student will receive 5 bathroom passes for the semester. Each time they use the bathroom they will need to use a pass. Extra passes can be turned in at the end of the semester for extra credit.

Cheating:

Cheating is not allowed on any assignment. If cheating occurs, zero points will be given. Cheating is not tolerated.

Supplies:

- Something to keep you organized (binder, folder, notebook, something with pockets) there will be a lot of handouts, so make sure to be organized
- Pencils
- Notebook or somewhere to take notes
